

It is important to me that we retain the privacy that the Wisconsin law currently provides. I do not pay the phone bill to provide access to people who I do not want to talk with! I like our law and do not want it changed.